Corporate Representatives

A body corporate/company which is a Shareholder and which wishes to attend and be represented at a meeting of Shareholders must appoint a representative who is a natural person and is either:

- a) a director, shareholder or employee of the Shareholder; OR
- b) a Director* of the Company; OR
- c) a Current Producer who holds "A" shares; to attend a meeting of Shareholders on its behalf.

Subject to clause 21.24 of the Constitution, all of the provisions of the Constitution in relation to a proxy apply to a representative to the extent possible.

Definition of Current Producer

 Under the Constitution to be a Current Producer, you need to have transacted the Minimum Business (determined by Board Policy under clause 13.12 of the Constitution). Currently, the Minimum Business Policy criteria are:

- o $10,000 in Produce sold to MG and/or supplied to MG and sold on consignment either:
 - in any one year in the rolling three year period before the meeting; or
 - on average over the rolling three year period before the meeting.
- o Amount is calculated excluding GST and hire equipment (crates and bins etc).
- o Applies to all Produce.
- o Period to be a 1 July to 30 June year.
